

ARKANSAS COMMUNICATION and THEATRE ARTS ASSOCIATION Inc CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association, Inc., in order to stimulate and encourage interest in all phases of Speech Communication and Theatre in the State of Arkansas and in order to bring about unity of action among all schools in the State, do hereby form and establish the constitution of the Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association, Inc.

ARTICLE I

Name, Classification, and Mission Statement

- Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association, Inc. (ACTAA).
- Section 2. Its purpose shall be to establish oral communication, debate, dance, and theatre art standards and to encourage communication/theatre art education and scholarship on the elementary, secondary, college, and university levels.
- Section 3. Mission Statement: The Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association is a community of professionals devoted to the rigorous study and ethical practice of oral communication, debate, dance, and theatre arts as an essential discipline, life skill, art form as components of the core curriculum. Through continuing teacher education, student participation, and scholarly publication the association supports the efforts and continued growth of communication and theatre arts teachers, students, and researchers.
- ACTAA offers professional development to educators in the areas of, but are not limited to, instructional strategies, lesson plan sharing, building and maintaining a collaborative learning environment, parental involvement, principles of learning, college forums, debate forums, competitive speech forums, curriculum alignment, mentoring/coaching, advocacy and leadership in communication, theatre arts and humanities, and cognitive research.
- Section 4. The Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association assumes no legal liability for copyright violations or other actions by participants or members.

ARTICLE II

Membership

- Section 1. Membership in the Association shall be open, upon application, to any teacher of speech, theatre, and/or dance or other interested persons, upon payment of the current annual membership dues.
- Section 2. Any member of the Association who, upon retirement from active teaching, has been a member of the Association for not less than fifteen (15) years, and who submits proper notification to the Executive Director, shall be granted the status of Lifetime membership, with all the privileges of members, without further payment of dues. These memberships shall be indicated by the abbreviation "Ret." entered after the name in all published lists of members. Honorary Memberships are given to guest speakers at our Fall Conference, Administrators of the Year, and others as the Executive Council deems necessary. Alumni membership is for the purposes of keeping track of former students.

Section 3. Membership in good standing may be maintained by timely payment of the annual dues of the Association, which run from August to August.

Section 4. The amount of dues shall be set by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Association at any regular meeting of the Association.

Section 5. Membership Dues are as follows:

ARTICLE III

Governing Body

Section 1. The Executive Council of the Association shall consist of the President, First Vice-President, First Vice-President Elect, Second Vice-President, Executive Director, Executive Treasurer, College Representative, Secondary Schools Representative, Lifetime Member Representative, Recording Secretary, Professional Development Coordinator, Editor of the Journal of Communication Studies, Archivist, Immediate Past President (serves one year as ex-officio member), Webmaster (serves as an ex-officio member), and newly elected 1st Vice President Elect, 1st Vice-President Elect/Elect, and 2nd Vice President Elect.

Section 2. Only members of the Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association, Inc. in good standing shall be eligible to serve as officers of the Association. Qualification for the 1st and 2nd Vice Presidential nominees includes at least 5 years of ACTAA membership in good standing (excluding student members) and may include chairmanship or in the process of serving on either Tournament of Champions, Student Congress, Demonstration Day committees, or currently active in the business of ACTAA. Qualifications for the 2nd Vice Presidential nominees include at least 3 years of ACTAA membership in good standing (excluding student and alumni members) and may include chairmanship or in the process of serving on either TOC, Student Congress, Demonstration Day, or currently active in the business of ACTAA.

Section 3. The Executive Council shall operate the business of the Association in the periods between the annual meetings of the Association. The Executive Council shall direct the policies and administer the affairs of the Association except as otherwise provided in the constitution and By-Laws.

Section 4. All officers, including the President, First Vice-President and other incoming officers shall assume office during the awards ceremony of the Tournament of Champions. Only the President and First Vice President need be present at that ceremony.

Section 5. A nominating committee of three members shall be chosen by Association members at the fall meeting of the Association to facilitate the election of officers as outlined in the Bylaws, Article II.

Section 6. In the event that one of the ACTAA Standing Officers elected by the membership or those ACTAA Executive Council positions that are appointed cannot fulfill his/her term, the ACTAA Executive Council on advice from the President may appoint an interim replacement to fill that position until the next Association meeting when a new election may be held, or the Council may appoint a permanent replacement for the remaining term of office. The Council should consider those members who ran (but did not win the election) for the office vacated as the interim appointee first before considering other members.

Section 7. The President shall be empowered to assume all duties of the Executive Director or Executive Treasurer in case of incapacity or death of that officer or appoint a temporary replacement until a search committee can be appointed.

ARTICLE IV

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Committee Structure and Duties

- Section 1. The committee structure of the Arkansas Communication and Theatre Arts Association shall consist of a system of permanent standing committees, permanent special committees, and special committees with ad-hoc status, each of which shall function throughout the year to promote the objectives of the Association.
- Section 2. Each chair and committee shall present a written report to the Association at the annual fall meetings. In addition to business conducted by the committee, the report will also include an itemized budget of the money spent and collected. The President may request reports of progress during the year.
- Section 3. Individual committee budgets are set by the Executive Council. Amendments to the amount are subject to the approval of the Executive Council.
- Section 4. When the President takes office in the spring, he/she should be prepared to fill openings on all permanent standing committees and permanent special committees as necessary. In some cases, committee chairs will make recommendations to the President to aid this process.
- Section 5. Rule changes and other decisions that affect the membership or participants in ACTAA events should be completed by committees no later summer workshop to present to Executive Council before presentation to the high school or college meetings at the fall conference, and approved by the association as new business during the business meeting. Changes subsequent to the Fall Convention, may be approved for reasons deemed emergency by a 2/3 vote of the Executive Council.
- Section 6. Permanent Standing Committees
- (1) In most cases (unless otherwise stated in the by-laws), permanent standing committees will consist of a chair, and three members. The outgoing chair will serve as an ex-officio member for one year. Members of the committee will rotate each year to the next member position to eventually chair the committee. After a member has chaired the committee, he/she will rotate off the committee. Unofficial observer positions can be added to the committee at the discretion of the chair.

- (2) The following standing committees are permanent standing committees that serve the executive council and the membership: Audit, Scholarship, Ethical Practices, Tournament of Champions, Student Congress, and Demonstration Day.
- (a) The Audit Committee will consist of a chair and three committee members. This committee will support the Executive Treasurer and report to the executive council information concerning the books of the ACTAA Executive Treasurer and his/her practices.
 - (b) The Scholarship Committee will consist of a chair and three committee members. This committee will publicize the existence of the scholarship, coordinate the collection of applications, and choose the scholarship winner(s).
 - (c) The Ethical Practices Committee will consist of a chair and three members. This committee will promote ethical and professional practices within the Association and in all of the activities sponsored by the Association.
 - (d) The Tournament of Champions (TOC). The TOC Committee shall organize and host the annual ACTAA Tournament of Champions. This committee shall consist of a chair and three members. The next ranking member of the committee who has served at least two years on the committee will assume the duties of the chair immediately following the Spring TOC. Another member will be appointed to the committee by the President, following a recommendation by remaining TOC committee members, at the next summer meeting. The duties of the outgoing chair are finished when all pending business (financial or otherwise) has been completed and the TOC report has been delivered at the fall Convention. However, the chair will retain ex-officio status to aid the next TOC director, if needed. The incoming chair's duties for the next TOC begin immediately following the spring TOC. Time and place will be decided by the TOC Committee with Executive Council approval. It will be held on a Friday and Saturday during the Spring Semester. TOC dates must be placed on the calendar by Summer Workshop. After all costs of TOC have been paid, any money remaining will be applied to the ACTAA scholarship fund.
 - (e) Student Congress. The Congress Committee shall organize and host the annual Student Congress of Human Relations. This committee shall consist of a chair and three members appointed by the President. The next ranking member who has served at least two years on the committee will assume the duties of the chair immediately following the Student Congress. Another member will be appointed to the committee at the next spring meeting by the President, following a recommendation made by the remaining members of the committee. The duties of the outgoing chair are finished when all pending business (financial or otherwise) has been completed and the TOC report has been delivered at the spring meeting. However, the chair will retain ex-officio status to aid the next Congress director, if needed. The incoming chair's duties for the next Student Congress begin immediately following Student Congress. Time and place will be decided by the Student Congress Committee with Executive Council approval. Student Congress registration fees are $75 per High School and $100 per College entry. After all costs of Student Congress have been paid, any money remaining will be applied to the ACTAA scholarship fund. Student Congress will be held in November on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday over the officially scheduled Veterans Day Holiday.

- (f) Demonstration Day (Demo Day) The Demonstration Day Committee shall organize and host the annual Demonstration Day. This committee shall consist of a chair and three members appointed by the President. The next ranking member who has served at least two years on the committee will assume the duties of the chair immediately following Demonstration Day. Another member will be appointed to the committee at the spring meeting by the President, following a recommendation by the remaining members of the committee. The duties of the outgoing chair are finished when all pending business (financial or otherwise) has been completed and the Demo Day report has been delivered at the spring meeting. However, the chair will retain ex-officio status to aid the next director, if needed. The incoming chair's duties for the next Demo Day begin immediately following Demo Day. Time and place will be decided by the Demo Day Committee with Executive Council approval. Date of Demo Day is on the Saturday in September following the annual Fall Conference. Demo Day fees are $10 per student entry. Proceeds from Demo Day help fund the ACTAA member's debate topic selection costs of travel.

Section 7.

- (g) Mock Trial Representative will serve as the Liaison between Mock Trial and ACTAA for a term of three years appointed by the President make a report to the Executive Council and General membership, if needed.
- (h) Editorial Board will be appointed by the Journal Editor.
- (i) The Constitutional Revisions Committee will revise the ACTAA Constitution at the direction of the Executive Council. This committee will consist of the chair (which is the Executive Director), the Archivist, and an at large member. The Executive Director and Archivist will serve on this committee as long as they hold these offices, while the at large member will serve a three year term. Annual revisions shall be complete by August 1st and published to the membership 30 days prior to the annual fall conference.
- (j) The Nominating Committee structure and duties are outlined in the Bylaws, Article II, Election of Officers and Appointed Positions.
- (k) The Fall Conference Committee will consist of the chair (which is the 1st Vice President). Members will include the 2nd Vice President, the chair of publicity/promotion and Recruitment/Mentoring, Executive Director, Executive Treasurer, College and Secondary School representatives, Archivist, and the Webmaster. The newly elected 1st Vice President-elect will serve in an ex-officio capacity. Other at-large members will be added to the committee as deemed necessary by the 1st Vice President. The responsibility of this committee will be to plan and implement the Fall Conference. After all costs of Fall Conference have been paid, any money remaining will revert to the general fund to cover other areas of ACTAA such as the summer workshop. If t-shirts are sold at Fall Conference, proceeds will go to the ACTAA scholarship fund.

- (l) The Summer Workshop Committee will consist of the chair (ACTAA President). Members will include the 2nd Vice President, Professional Development Coordinator, Recruitment and Mentoring, Executive Director, Executive Treasurer, College and High School Representatives, and the webmaster. The responsibility of this committee is to plan and implement the summer workshop. Dates for summer workshop are typically Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday during the middle of July. These dates are chosen by the Executive Council during the Fall Conference. Summer workshop should include Professional Development but is also an opportunity for ACTAA committees and council to be trained to run ACTAA, plan future programs for ACTAA, maintain and promote ACTAA business, and promote community in ACTAA.
- (m) The Tournament-Advisory Committee (TAC) will be made up of all ACTAA members that are directing a tournament during the current year. Other members will include the TOC director and co-director and the Student Congress Director and Co-Director. The chair will be chosen and appointed by the Executive Council at the Fall Conference from this group. The charge of this committee will be to aid tournament directors and coaches who implement and attend tournaments when questions, problems, and issues exist. It is charged to aid new coaches who might need guidance before, during, and after a tournament. Any member who is considering hosting a tournament should contact the chair of this committee for coordinating a mentor to aide his/her efforts. It is charged with aiding tournament directors with issues that might arise when preparing and implementing a tournament and the aftermath of potential issues that can arise at tournaments. This committee is not charged with sanctioning coaches, students, or tournament directors but is charged with helping the tournament process for all ACTAA members. Any ACTAA member can contact any member of the tournament committee to ask questions or express concerns. Members of this committee should confer with the chair and the chair will determine if the concern warrants discussion among all of the members. The chair should act with open communication with the members of his/her committee and vice versa.
- (n) Professional Development Committee is made up of the chair, the Professional Development Coordinator and at least 4 other members. Members of this committee should come from all levels of the membership. The executive council will aid the Professional Development Coordinator in filling the committee membership. This committee is responsible for coordinating professional development for our ACTAA members at the Fall Conference and the Summer Workshop. This committee will develop relationships with college and high school members to aid in providing professional development. This committee will work with the webmaster to post professional development information on the website. The committee will keep a list of all who provide professional development and what programs have been specifically provided.

- (o) The Lifetime Member Committee is made up of honorary lifetime members of ACTAA who support the mission and vision of ACTAA. Duties include recruitment of new members, supporting existing members, and being active in the ACTAA mission.

Section 3

Other special committees known as "Ad-hoc" will be appointed by the president to serve executive council and the membership but have limited duties and limited amount of time to complete those duties and will be considered finished at the completion of those duties.

ARTICLE II

Election of Officers and Appointed Positions

President, First Vice President, Second Vice President
Speech Teacher of the Year, Administrator of the Year
Executive Director, Executive Treasurer, Journal Editor

Archivist, Professional Development Coordinator, College Representative, Secondary School Representative, Lifetime Member Representative, Webmaster, AR Thespians Liaison, NFL Representative, Mock Trial Representative, and Recording Secretary

Section 1.

The Nominating Committee is a Permanent Special Committee. Nominations for the election of officers shall be made by a Nominating Committee with three members chosen in the following manner: without nominations from the floor, tellers appointed by the President shall distribute blank ballots on which each voter shall recommend three members of the Association who are eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee. All members of the Association are eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee except officers of the Association and those persons who have served on the Nominating Committee the preceding two years. No ballot containing more or fewer than three names shall be counted. The three members receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected. The member with the most votes will chair the committee. While the names of more than one person from the same school may be placed on any one ballot, only one person from a school may serve on this committee. Should two people from the same school win election, the member with the higher number of votes will serve. ARTICLE III

Awards

- Section 1 Every year after the Tournament of Champions, the nomination committee will seek out from the membership nominations for the ACTAA Teacher of the Year. This award can be given to the Secondary School teacher and/or the College Teacher who best exemplifies not only the spirit of our Mission Statement but shows throughout their tenure with ACTAA an ability to work toward the common good of ACTAA and its members. This teacher should be a member in good standing for at least 5 years before being considered for this award. Those candidates nominated for Teacher of the Year should not only serve their school and their discipline well but they should also be active members involved in the business of ACTAA. It is not necessary to give this award out every year.
- Section 2 The Spirit of ACTAA award is given to those ACTAA members, in good standing, that have served ACTAA in some special manner sometime during the previous school year, August to August. The Spirit of ACTAA award publicly recognizes not only those individual(s) that embody the spirit of ACTAA's mission but those members who work collaboratively to aid others in the organization. This award permits ACTAA to honor those who demonstrate a commitment to improving and strengthening the efforts of ACTAA in any area while making a significant impact on our organization. All submissions for the Spirit of ACTAA award should be sent to the ACTAA 2nd Vice President throughout the school year. Please submit name, school, and a 150 word or less description of the honoree's contribution to ACTAA in the past school year. Deadline for all submissions will be by August 1. When submitting a name, please follow the above guidelines in making your choice. This award is designed to honor a member for a job well done and is not considered a frivolous award. The Spirit of ACTAA award will be given during the Fall Conference. If no submissions are received, no awards will be given.
